

Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA)

The Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA) sets out how B.C. organizations, including corporations, sole-proprietorships, partnerships and non-profit organizations, may collect, use and disclose personal information about individuals.

Web link to this and other information can be found at http://www.oipc.bc.org/sector_private/resources/index.htm